DISCOVER THE CHARM

Charm. It means to delight by compelling attraction. To practice magic and enchantment.

You'll find charm everywhere you turn in Leesburg. From our brick sidewalks and authentically restored historic storefronts, to the elegant colonial-era homes and one-of-a-kind shops and our upscale outlet mall. And the people? Among the friendliest and most outgoing you'll ever meet.

Leesburg is a gem — multi-faceted, authentic and enchanting. Where else can you discover and experience so much?

Discover the Charm. Discover Leesburg.

DISCOVER THE CHARACTER

Character. It's the distinctive qualities of a town. In Leesburg, you'll find character in our spirit, in our friendliness and hospitality (a Leesburg tradition that dates back to Colonial times) and in our people.

It's a welcome change from the hectic pace and impersonal face of Anywhere, USA.

You'll also find Leesburg was home to characters like Arthur Godfrey and people of character, like George C. Marshall, America's first five-star general.

Speaking of spirit, you'll explore legends and stories of haunted houses throughout Leesburg.

DISCOVER THE SHOPPING

It's all here — Leesburg is a shopper's dream. You'll find antiques, art and artifacts, the newest designer clothes, furniture, even American Indian art and music — and everything in between.

The Downtown Historic District shops offer unique and never seen before gift items. Looking for organic veggies and blackberry honey? Stop by our Farmer's Market. And, visit the Leesburg Corner Premium Outlets and shopping centers throughout town for a great selection of national brands.

Antiques and collectibles are everywhere you turn in Leesburg. From the Revolutionary War era, right up through WWII and the 1960s, you're sure to find something eclectic for your home or office.

DISCOVER THE HISTORY

Leesburg is home to so much history.

The Town of Leesburg was founded in 1758, so there's an incredible amount of the past to discover.

Learn what role the Town played in the Revolutionary War era, and during the Civil War. Discover cultural heritage through the Black History Walking Tour, the role of women in Leesburg and the history of the railroad that once brought tourists from DC seeking to avoid the summer heat — and has now become the W & OD Railroad Regional Park.

You can even find yourself (and your family's history) in Leesburg. Our Balch Library boasts one of the area's most extensive genealogy and local history collections. Spend a morning touring Dodona Manor, George C. Marshall's weekend and retirement home.

Stop in at the Loudoun Museum. Housed in quaint stucco and log cabin buildings, the museum and shop give you a great way to learn about Leesburg--and take a little piece of that history home with you.

Start your own tradition...and make your own history. In Leesburg.

DISCOVER THE RECREATION

There's always something to do in Leesburg.

Whether it's reading a novel in one of our many parks, participating in the local tennis tournament or stopping in for a swim at Ida Lee Park, Leesburg's state-of-the-art recreation and fitness center, you're sure to find an activity that's right up your alley.

Leesburg is athletic-minded. There's the Catoctin Skate Park, perfect for rollerblading and skateboarding, and the

DISCOVER THE ENTERTAINMENT

From parades to festivals, music to steeplechase races, you'll find entertainment in Leesburg, all year long.

The first Friday of every month brings art lovers and antiquers from all over the metro area to Leesburg's Gallery Walk. The Tally-Ho Theatre, on Market Street in the Historic District of Leesburg, features an art-deco design, first-run movies, and special events. And, in the summer, Sunday nights in Leesburg are given over to bluegrass, reggae, folk or other types of music, courtesy of the Bluemont Concert Series.

Leesburg also has great festivals, events and parades for you and your family to enjoy, including the Flower & Garden Festival, Holiday Parade and Tree Lighting. You can jump into Spring, with an incredible variety of plants and flowers. Plus, learn how to make your plants (and garden) grow, with advice from gardening experts. When you come to August Court Days you'll be part of a celebration that's been keeping history and tradition alive in Loudoun County. It's an authentic celebration of colonial times, where you'll see period costumes, a real fife and drum band, and much more!

Washington & Old Dominion (W & OD) bike trail—ideal for mountain biking, walking or running, and horseback riding. Freedom Park is our newest youth sports venue. Golfers will enjoy challenge and variety; they can play at Raspberry Falls, Goose Creek, Westpark and more courses nearby. Bird watchers will find plenty of open spaces, and many species, at the Rust Audubon Sanctuary.

When the leaves start turning, why not visit our Fall Into the Arts Festival? This juried arts competition brings exceptional artwork to the streets and brick sidewalks of Leesburg. Leesburg really dresses up for the holidays, with lots of lights and old-fashioned decorations. And our Holiday Parade and First Night New Year's Celebrations are sure to get you in the spirit of the season. ## DAY & WEEKEND ITINERARIES

DAY

Start the day with a mocha or latte at The Coffee Bean, Market Street Coffee or Starbucks. Then, check out the galleries, antique stores and specialty shops in historic downtown. Lunch? Try the pulled pork or ribs at The Mighty Midget. The afternoon is for shopping (or golf). The Leesburg Corner Premium Outlets carry clothing for men, women, and children—jewelry, home accessories and more. Tee it up at Raspberry Falls (if you know your way out of a sand trap). Dinner? Tuscarora Mill Restaurant (Tuskies) offers fine dining in a beautifully restored flour mill. If it's Italian you're craving, try Nido's, Zefirelli's or GG Café.

WEEKEND

Friday/Saturday. Start your weekend at any of our hotels or B&Bs like the Norris House. Then have breakfast on Saturday morning like the "locals" at the Leesburg Restaurant, a local landmark. Visit Oatlands, for a look at a grand old plantation. At Tarara Winery, sample a glass of white or red. On the way back, stop at the site of the Civil War battle at Balls Bluff. Hungry? Go to Lightfoot, and enjoy fine dining in the former People's Bank building. After dinner, catch a movie around the corner at the Tally-Ho Theatre.

Sunday. After breakfast at IHOP, visit the Loudoun Museum and Shop. It's a great way to learn the history of Leesburg. Or, rent bikes at Plum Grove Cyclery (or bring your own) and take a leisurely ride on the W & OD Trail. Have dinner at the Blue Ridge Grill or the Eiffel Tower Café. Top the weekend off at the Bluemont Concert Series on the steps of the Court House.
